September 17th, 2012 : Class#9 students have arrived safely in France on 8th and 9th of September and we were pleased to welcome all of them during our so-called Integration week. Now, they have left Amiens to start their first semester in Toulouse and Marseille.

Pictures of the integration week published soon...

Class#8 students have joined either Amiens or Cordoba to start their third semester. And in February, they will start their Master Thesis, the last step before the end of their great MESC adventure !

September 12th, 2012 : The whole MESC Consortium congratulates Class#7 for their brilliant work during these last two years. It was a great pleasure to share these good moments with them during the Graduation; and we wish them all the best in their future career.

Pictures and videos of the Graduation published soon...

March 20th, 2012 :

Class 9 selection (2012/2014): We are waiting for the official acceptance from EACEA and as soon as we receive it, we will start the administrative work for visa applications. In June, we will start organizing the integration week that will take place in Amiens from September 10th, 2012.

February 20th, 2012 : The Consortium met in Cordoba between February 13th and 15th to select future MESC 9 students. At this occasion, Mrs. Brigitta BOSZE, from the EACEA Agency, participated in the Meeting for Monitoring purpose.

Out of 147 applicants, we selected 7 non European and 4 European students for ERASMUS MUNDUS scholarships. These 11 students come from 9 different countries.

Moreover, thanks to scholarships offered by ALISTORE-ERI, RS2E, CIC Energigune and most likely other private partners, the Consortium will be able to accept other students for an overall list of ~25 students.

February 9th, 2012 : Students of Class 7 have moved to their respective locations for Master Thesis. This year, our 23 students will do their internship within 17 laboratories located in 12 different countries. Noticeably, 10 of them will perform their Master Thesis within Companies affiliated to ALISTORE. The Master Thesis defence will take place in Amiens on September 11th 2012.

January 31st, 2012 : The students of Class 7 have taken their Semester 3 exams in Amiens or Cordoba. Meanwhile, The students of Class 8 have finished their Semester 1 in Marseille or Toulouse and will start their classes in Warsaw on February 20th 2012. Several of them expressed their interest of doing a summer internship within ALISTORE Laboratories from June 1st to September 5th 2012.

January 16th, 2012 : The 11 students of Class 7 spending their Semester 3 in Amiens were invited by UPJV to a hockey game. Les Gothiques d'Amiens vs. Les Chamoix de Chamonix. Amiens team won and we had a great time.

December 15th, 2011 : Some MESC7 students (spending their Semester 3 in Amiens, France) attended a conference in Collège de France in Paris on November 7th.

The 11 MESC7 students in Collège de France

Here with Prof. Jean Marie Tarascon

November 21st, 2011 : The MESC Consortium collected 50 topics for the Class 7 Master Thesis. The topics were given to the students who have to select their favorite ones before December 5th 2011. Then, the MESC Consortium will meet in Marseille on December 9th and give their final decision about the assignments of these Master Thesis topics.

November 17th, 2011 : If you are interested in joining the MESC Master Course with the Class 9 (academic course 2012/2014), you can now apply online, on this website, by clicking on the link below:

The applications are opened until January 31st, 2012. We kindly remind you that after applying through this website, you will have to send your application by ordinary post to Jamila Tamimy (address listed in the Consortium section).

October 10, 2011 : In February 2012, students of Class 7 will start their Master Thesis. But at the moment, we are dealing with the topics of these master Thesis. So we invite all the laboratories willing to host one of our student to contact Jamila Tamimy for further details. The deadline to submit the topics is October 28th, 2011.

September 20th, 2011 : Students of Class 6 have just taken their Master Thesis Defence and none of them failed. So we are happy to inform you that our 27 students graduated on September 15th, 2011.
More pictures on our official MESC Facebook page... Soon

September 10th, 2011 : Like every year, the so-called Integration week starts today in Amiens, until September 15th. This year we receive 20 students in Class 8 and during one week, we are going to arrange everything for their stay : registration in partner universities, bank account opening... On next Thursday, they will leave Amiens to reach their University for Semester 1 : Marseille or Toulouse.

August 29th, 2011 : We are happy to invite you to the Class 6 Graduation Ceremony that will take place in the Logis du Roy, in Amiens, on September 14, 2011, at 10:30 a.m

March 23rd, 2011 : I kindly remind to all the selected Cat A and Cat B students that you have to confirm your willingness to join our Master Course before March 31st : by email at jamila.tamimy@u-picardie.fr and at christian.masquelier@u-picardie.fr AND by registered post at the address mentioned on the homepage.

March 15th, 2011 : All the Erasmus Mundus scholarships were attributed. Nevertheless, we are seeking for other sources of funding (from partners, or private companies). Within some weeks, we will have a more precise idea of the number of additional grants we can offer to students interested in our programme. So if you were ranked in the beginning of our reserve list, you still have a great chance to join our Master Course.

February 10th, 2011 : The MESC Consortium kindly reminds you that today is the deadline to apply for the MESC Master Course 2011-2013. If you are interested in our programme, please visit our application page to find all the relevant information; and send your application by email at mundus.mesc@u-picardie.fr and by registered mail at :
Jamila TAMIMY
MESC Consortium
Université de Picardie Jules Verne - Direction des Affaires Internationales
Chemin du Thil
80025 AMIENS Cedex 1

January 18th, 2011 : In order to give more time to all the applicants for MESC 2011/2013 to send their application (cat A and B students and scholars), the MESC Consortium decides to postpone the deadline until FEBRUARY 10th, 2011. But do not forget as always that the sooner is the better.

Once the deadline passed, the Pedagogic Committee will examine each application and the MESC Consortium will meet in Warsaw from February 21st to 23rd to select the future students and scholars of MESC#8.

January 6th, 2011 : In February, MESC#6 will start their Master Thesis and they will be hosted for 6 months in a lab or a company. This year, our 26 students of Class 6 will be dispatched in 14 institutions, located in 8 different countries.

January 3rd, 2011 :

ENGLISH PROFICIENCY :

TOEFL: In response to our request, the ETS (Educational Testing Service) have assigned the Université De Picardie Jules Verne the code number 5351. Please use this code number when indicating our institution as a score recipient. Scores will then be sent to us directly from the Educational Testing Service.

IMPORTANT: The TOEFL or IELTS test is not compulsory for everyone. If you are taking or have taken a course in English, please ask your host university to send us a certificate acknowledging that the classes were taught in English and that your level is good enough to integrate our program.

January 2nd, 2011 : The MESC Consortium wishes to all of you a Happy New Year !!!!!
