A Quality Welcome

« Welcome to France » Label

In 2020, the University of Picardie Jules Verne was awarded the « Bienvenue en France » (“Welcome to France”) label. Issued by Campus France, this label guarantees you the best possible welcome to France as well as access to information and support throughout your stay at the UPJV!

The UPJV offers the following services to help you to settle in:

- A one-stop welcome office « Guichet d'Accueil », to help with administrative procedures on arrival: visa validation, social security registration, accommodation, opening a bank account etc. At the same time, you can also find out about sports and cultural activities on offer at the university. Open from the end of August until the middle of September, it's an event not to be missed!
- The Buddy System: this is a mentoring platform enabling local French students to help and support international students like yourself.
- Personalized support from the International Relations team to help with settling in.
- Help with finding accommodation thanks to our partnership with the CROUS Amiens-Picardie.
- Regular meet-ups between international students and local students from UPJV.
- Free French lessons (FLE) to improve your French language skills.

Before your arrival, the International Relations Department organises a series of webinars every Tuesday between April and June : "Mardis de l'International" (International Tuesdays).

The aim is to reassure newcomers and inform them about their future university environment.

SEARCH FOR ACCOMMODATION

For your period of study or research in France, you will need to rent accommodation. Here are some helpful hints to help you with this:

Accommodation in public student halls of residence

The student halls are managed by the CROUS Amiens-Picardie (Centre Régional des Œuvres Universitaires et Scolaires), a public organization offering low-rent accommodation to students.

The UPJV International Relations office has signed an agreement with the CROUS Amiens-Picardie, guaranteeing a quota of rooms each year for international students.

To apply for a room in a university residence:

- Exchange programme students: you must fill out the accommodation request form which will be sent to you by the International Relations office.
- Individually registered students: you must book a room through the «Welcome to France » office. As places are limited, priority is given to students enrolling for a Master's degree.
- Direct application to CROUS Amiens-Picardie: international students can reserve any vacant rooms from July onwards on the following site: <https://trouverunlogement.lescrous.fr/>

Further information can be found in the accommodation section on our website: "Accommodation" section on our website !

Private student accommodation

The International Relations office can help you find private residences reserved for young professionals and students. These establishments offer services which are adapted to the needs of young people (laundry facilities, cafeterias, etc.)

For further information, please contact the « Welcome to France / Bienvenue en France » office for international students: bienvenue@u-picardie.fr

Alternative student accommodation

Lokaviz, private student accommodation, managed by the CROUS Amiens-Picardie

The platform Lokaviz, managed by the CROUS Amiens-Picardie, lists private student accommodation. Each advert is checked by the CROUS to ensure the accommodation is suitable and the rent is reasonable.

Private accommodation

It is possible to rent student accommodation from private landlords, from an individual room to a flat-share.

OBTAINING YOUR VISA

Depending on your nationality, your situation and the length of your stay, you must obtain a visa to study or carry out research in France.

Student VISA

European student

If you are a national of a country in the European Economic Area (EEA – countries of the European Union (EU) + Iceland, Norway, Liechtenstein) or Switzerland, you do not need a student visa to study or do an internship in France. You are free to enter France, regardless of the length of your stay.

However, you must have suitable health cover and sufficient resources to provide for yourself (and any family members if need be).

Non-European student (including British student)

If you are a national of a country outside of the European Economic Area (EEA – countries of the European Union (EU) + Iceland, Norway, Liechtenstein) or outside of Switzerland, you must obtain a visa in order to study, carry out research or do an internship in France.

There are different types of visas. You must apply for the visa which corresponds to your situation (studies, research or internship) and the length of your stay in France.

The short-stay student visa

Your stay is < or = to 90 days: you must obtain a short-stay student visa to study in France.

The long stay student visa

Your stay is > 90 days: you must apply for a long-stay student visa to study, carry out research or do an internship in France.

There are two types of long-stay visas:

- The « visa long séjour valant titre de séjour » (VLS-TS)

The VLS-TS allows you to stay in France for up to one year without having to apply for a residence permit. You must however validate your visa upon arrival in France.

Depending on the nature of your stay, there are 3 types of long-stay visas:

- the VLS-TS: a student visa for study at Bachelor and Master level
- the VLS: specific visas known as « passeport talent » for PhD level students and above
- the VLS-TS: an intern visa to carry out an internship in France as part of the training you are doing in your home country.

On arrival in France, you must have your « visa long séjour valant titre de séjour » (VLS-TS) validated. This can be done online: <https://administration-etrangers-en-france.interieur.gouv.fr/particuliers/#/>

- The « visa long séjour temporaire » (VLS-T)

The VLS-T allows you to stay in France for up to 1 year without having to validate your visa. It is non-renewable and does not give you the same rights as the VLS-TS.

Research professor visa

European research professor

You are a research professor and national of a country in the European Economic Area (27 countries of the European Union (EU) + Iceland, Norway, Liechtenstein and Switzerland): you do not need a visa or residence permit. Only a valid identity card or passport is required.

Non-European research professor (including British nationals)

You are a research professor and national of a country outside of the European Economic Area (EEA –countries of the European Union (EU) + Iceland, Norway, Liechtenstein) or outside of Switzerland and coming to a French university for the first time: you must apply for a « Visa Passeport Talent Chercheur ». For more information, contact the French consulate or embassy of your home country.

Do you have a question or need further information?

Visit Campus France website and official French visa website to find out about specific procedures based on your nationality and your type of stay.

The virtual assistant on the official French visa website will help you to determine the right visa for your stay in France:

<https://www.france-visas.gouv.fr/assistant-visa>

INSURANCE

If you want your stay to go smoothly, even in the event of an accident or unforeseen circumstances, you must be covered by different types of insurance.

Finding out about this as early as possible is a priority!

Health cover

In France, it is obligatory, and free, to be registered with French social security. This will cover around 70% of healthcare costs (consultations with a doctor, medical exams...).

Depending on your status (student or employee) and your country of origin, the procedure differs.

You are a student

As soon as possible after your university registration, you must register with social security, except if:

- You are European and you have a European Health Insurance Card (or a provisional certificate). In this case, your healthcare costs will be reimbursed as if you were in your home country.
- You were already registered in a French higher education establishment last year. You will automatically be registered with social security.

You must register with social security if you are:

- A European student without a European Health Insurance card.
- A European student with the S1 form, obtained before your departure, from your registered health organization in your home country.
- A British or non-European student.

You are a PhD student or researcher

The Euraxess centre can guide you step by step through the registration process with the CPAM.

Register with social security

You can find more information on the social security website for international students:

<https://etudiant-etranger.ameli.fr/#/>

The site is available in French, English and Spanish.

Please note:

Registration with social security can be done with the help of the UPJV International Relations team at the one-stop Welcome Office « Bienvenue en France ».

Health cover

Health cover is not obligatory but strongly advised and, in addition to social security reimbursements, can cover up to 100% of your medical expenses.

There are many health insurance companies to choose from. The independent organization Que choisir can help you choose the most suitable cover for your needs, at the right price:

<https://www.quechoisir.org/guide-d-achat-mutuelle-pour-jeunes-et-etudiants-n3443/>

Home insurance

In France, when renting accommodation, you must take out home insurance and provide a copy of the insurance certificate before moving into the property.

Home insurance covers any damage caused by the tenant or a third-party (water damage, burglary etc.) or even damage caused by bad weather or natural disasters. This is known as « rental liability » insurance.

The monthly cost is proportional to the surface area of the rented property.

The majority of insurance policies also include civil liability (excluding professional civil liability).

Civil liability insurance

Civil liability insurance covers any damage or injury caused to others through your own fault or negligence.

If you took out comprehensive home insurance, the civil liability insurance is already included in your contract.

If this is not the case, you can take out specific insurance known as « personal liability » insurance.

Repatriation assistance insurance

Repatriation assistance insurance is not obligatory but strongly advised.

In the event of a major health problem or death in France, transport costs and medical repatriation by air are covered.

You are in private accommodation:
